

4 Award-winning short films
1 community dialogue

May 22

*Theme: The Faces of Foster Care
A home. A helping hand. A hero.*

"Foster Parents Speak"

23 minute award-winning film produced by PhotoSynthesis Productions of Ithaca. Hear from dedicated foster parents who are committed to changing lives.

"Foster Care Is Like a Subway Ride"

Take a virtual subway ride through foster care in this 13 minute audio play by John Dunn. 'Subway' is part of an award-winning public education series produced by Community Audio for the Children's Aid Societies of Canada.

"ReMoved"

This 13 minute Grand Prize winner at both the 168 and Enfoque Film Festivals was directed by Nathanael Matanick for Echolight Studios. It is a heart-breaking and heart-warming look at one young girl's journey through foster care.

"From Place to Place"

Three foster care youth age out of the system, and band together to change the world in this 15 minute short version of the long film by the same name. Winner of best Social Political Documentary of 2012.

The Auburn Public Theater, 7 pm

Join the dialogue.

Open to adults 21 and older.

These free events are sponsored by

Cayuga Centers
Lives

cayugacenters.org

101 Hamilton Ave., Auburn, NY 13021
P: (315) 253-5383 · F: (315) 253-7278